

Press Release: Equality Jackson now 501c3 Pending

Contact Information:

Equality Jackson

Genevia Jensen

731-215-0521

equalityjacksontn@gmail.com

<http://equalityjacksontn.org/>

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EQUALITY JACKSON NOW 501c3 PENDING

You No Longer Need to Wait to Donate to the LGBTQ+ Community!

JACKSON, TN, JULY 8, 2019 – Equality Jackson is the first LGBTQ+ Organization in Jackson, Tennessee to become Tax-Exempt Pending according to a public records search on Taxexemptworld.com.

On July 8, 2019, Genevia Jensen, President; Ken Jensen, Vice President; Taylor Kupperman, Vice President; and Sarah Coleman, Secretary filed necessary paperwork and an Employer Identification Number (EIN) was supplied to the organization. The following week, they received non-profit pending status.

This is a very important moment for Equality Jackson and for the LGBTQ+ Community in Jackson, Tennessee.

--Genevia Jensen--

If you are a Donor, and you have been waiting on an organization to give to that is in the LGBTQ+ community, then you can stop waiting.

Equality Jackson is now open for business and is looking to do some real work in the community.

For more information, visit <http://equalityjacksontn.org/>

About Equality Jackson:

Equality Jackson loves and is dedicated to the fair treatment and support of the LGBT+ community of Jackson TN and surrounding areas.

They are also the host of the Jackson Tennessee Pride Festival.

Future Focus of Equality Jackson is to continue to provide events for the LGBT+ community and eventually build a community center.

###